swindled by the "doctoring" of samples by the importers on the wharves where the fruit is opened for inspection.

At a special meeting of the Fruit Buyers Union held to-day President Lyon denounced in most emphatic language the injustice done to the dealers in this city who have been losing money through the injustice of the importers who have, as President Lyon declared, faisified their samples on the wharves.

"We have had rules upon rules in the past," he said, "but everything thus far has proved futile because the buyers would not stand together. We hope that the time has come when we will all lay aside our personalities and differences and unite in one solid body under some agreed plan and compel justice and honest dealing in the manner of selecting and opening boxes and exposing the fruit therein.
